Price Gouging Experience:

sent ambulance bill of $338.85 for 3.7 mile ride [REDACTED] 2011. Husband had 2nd bladder cancer operation from [REDACTED]. I drove 8-10 hour to get home. That night got severe abdominal pains and dizziness. Husband was on strong meds and physically and mentally out of it. I have heart problems, called 911 and told them what was happening, they sent ambulanced. They refuse to bill [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said I should have called neighbor(90) years old and other neighbors both work. If I took taxi, waiting time at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was 2-3 hours. Ambulance they take you right away. I have heart mumur, TIA, Bells Palsey, and stent. It was $338.85 for 3.7 miles
