Price Gouging Experience:

I had my routine labs ordered by my doctor performed at the hospital a few miles from me, so my doctor, who is associated with the hospital could get the test results easily. I found out later she did not get the results without the office staff calling. My bill was $1220! Fortunately I have [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and my company used the [REDACTED] allowable for the service. The total amount due to the hospital was $38.91 for this service. Thank God I had insurance. Those poor souls who have to pay the full amount are really getting stuck.
