Price Gouging Experience:

Hello, I was brought to the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
by family members for a cut on my thumb. No stitches were required, the thumb was dressed with antibiotic ointment and gauze, and I was told that the emergency room doctor had to see the wound before I left. They also told me I needed a Tetanus shot and pain prescription. I said I didn't want them, and they gave them to me anyway. They unwrapped the dressing, the doctor was in the room approx. 10 secs and said it is fine and I can go. They rewrapped with same dressing and released me. The total charges for the billing at this time is $1,972.43 and I believe there will be another $101.00 charge separately for the physician. Thanks, [REDACTED]
