Price Gouging Experience:

[REDACTED] has attempted to charge me $900 for 9 drug tests which my hospital bill indicates were performed after I was given narcotics and barbiturates for pain associated with [REDACTED]. I have been disputing this for nearly a year. The hospital has been inconsistent with the information and even the method of testing has changed in their communication. After being stuck six times for a spinal tap by an incompetent ER doctor, this hospital should be investigated for more than just price gouging.
